President's Gouge

The June meeting was a bust. By the time I realized the conflict with the Carson Valley Days' Parade it was too late to reschedule. Then, the county made a late decision to close the center until noon. Hope to see you all on July 10th.

Ken Crosby is keeping his tools sharp and will be doing the live demonstration he had planned for the June meeting. He will be showing us the finer points of turning a natural/live edge bowl. Bring your notebook.

We had another wood move on June 19th. We moved a trailer load from Zuni Pines to the Arts building. Thanks to Mike Walters, Lavon Wiseman, Dave Walters, Matt Furginson, Gary Muma, and Dale Pappas. And a special thanks to Dave Mills for the continued use of Zuni Pines.

I'll be reviewing our volunteer list and most likely asking for more members to step up. I'm looking for redundancy in everything.

We'll be holding elections in November. Most of the current board will be stepping down. Talk it up. It is rewarding to give back to the club.

We are on the schedule to display our work at the Carson Valley Arts Council's gallery during the month of August. If you have a special turning that you would like included in the show, please bring it to the July meeting or hands-on and contact Ken Crosby or myself. There is plenty of room so don't be shy.

Remember to check for emails with updated club information and notices. If you know a member without an email, please pass on the information. See you July 10th.

Turn Here for Safety

Before the lathe is turned on, ensure that all clamps and fittings are secure and that the work piece is free to turn.

Hands-on June 26th

The June 26th hands-on turnout was still a little light but, we were making shavings on all four lathes. Frank worked on the inside of a very clever saltshaker. I was trying to remember how to use a couple of different texturing tools with little success. Gary Muma was able to complete a nice natural edge goblet. Wayne Porter was busy doing some demo thing but, I had my back to him and didn't see the results. It was good to see a bunch of dust and chips. Ron Burdug again brought a selection of tools and accessories for sale. We had a few walk-ins that showed an interest in the club. I had to refresh my supply of business cards. I hope they come again. As always, the coffee and conversation were outstanding. I look forward to seeing more of you at the next hands-on. Keep your tools sharp and the shavings out of your coffee.
